

Ladies Singing THE BLUES ON BROADWAY

Featuring Lady Cantrese, Ghanniyya Green, and LeeOlive Tucker. Plus a special tribute to Rose Marie McCoy with Baby Washington, Maxine Brown, and Rose Marie McCoy

Tuesday, November 13, 2007 • 7:30

PETER NORTON
symphonyspace

2537 Broadway at 95th Street, New York, NY

Tickets: $30/$20; Symphony Space and Harlem Arts Alliance Members $26/$16.

Purchase tickets at www.symphonyspace.org or by calling 212-864-5400.

For more information, contact Community Works at 212-459-1854.

Lady Cantrese

Ghanniyya Greene

LeeOlive Tucker

Baby Washington

Maxine Brown

Rose Marie McCoy

harlem is... MUSIC

Ladies Singing the Blues celebrates and documents the sounds and stories of locally and nationally acclaimed blues crooners from Harlem, New Orleans, and throughout the world through a series of performances, symposiums, and lecture demonstrations. It is a new component of Community Works' harlem is... MUSIC project, celebrating the legacy and history of music in Harlem through exhibitions and public programs.

This event is produced by Community Works, Barbara Horowitz, Founder and President in association with New Heritage Theatre Group, Voza Rivers, Executive Producer.

Major support provided by the New York State Music Fund, established by the New York State Attorney General at Rockefeller Philanthropy Advisors.

COMMUNITY WORKS NEW YORK CITY
Building Community Through Art and Education

The New York City Council
Christine C. Quinn, Speaker

Manhattan Borough President
Scott M. Stringer

Funded in part under contract with New York City Department for the Aging.