Tap-estry!

AN INTERGENERATIONAL GATHERING OF HARLEM TAPPERS

A Mother's Day salute to RUTH WILLIAMS, the Godmother of Tap

Sunday | May 11, 2003 | 3:00 p.m.
The Schomburg Center
for Research in Black Culture
515 Malcolm X Boulevard at 135th Street
Harlem, NY

This Sunday Parlour Series Kick-Off features ageless senior tappers, young tap dancers, instrumentalist Tevin Thomas and other live musicians. The Series is fashioned after the spirit of the brownstone "parlour parties" of the Harlem Renaissance, where guests gathered for music, dance, poetry, food and conversation.

Join us as we travel from floor to floor and experience these eclectic offerings:

- View the full harlem is... exhibit
- Experience the intergenerational performances and gatherings
- Browse through The Schomburg's art collections and bookstore
- Enjoy a dessert buffet

The SUNDAY PARLOUR SERIES continues:

June 29 A World of Jazz & Music

July 13 A Legacy of Words

The SUNDAY PARLOUR SERIES is part of harlem is...

CELEBRATING THE LIVING HISTORY OF HARLEM
a public art and education project of COMMUNITY WORKS

harlem is... honors 30 individuals (ages 50 to 100) whose dynamic lives and meaningful works have helped shape and define the character of the world-famous Harlem community.

This afternoon is produced by Community Works (Barbara Horowitz, Executive Director) and New Heritage Theatre (Voza Rivers, Executive Producer).

Please RSVP to Community Works at: 212-459-1854.
